

Chavez Poon – Curriculum Vitae

Profile

I was born in Hong Kong in June 2003 and moved to the United Kingdom in December 2025. From the earliest age I have a keen interest in writing, history and information technology. Quite recently I started my personal website chavezpoon.com to publish some of my writing focusing on the life and sacred liturgies in the Roman Catholic Church.

At present, I have been volunteering with EWTN Great Britain since June 2026, where I have been involved in videography, writing, and various interviewing events. Prior to this, I worked as Mass and Pilgrimage Office Assistant at the Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham from December 2025 to May 2026.

I am currently discerning a vocation to the priesthood. I have always immersed myself in a wide range of subjects, particularly history and the sacred liturgies of the Roman Catholic Church, as well as theology, content creation and information technology.

I also enjoy discussion and public speaking and have taken every opportunity to develop and expand these particular skills.
